

Instant Pot Black-Eyed Peas and Collard GreensCollard Greens

1	1/2 pound	Pork Belly, Diced	On the Instant Pot, hit “Sauté” and “Adjust” so it’s on the “Normal” or “Medium” setting. When the pot display reads “Hot,” add the pork belly and stir for 1 minute. Don’t let it cook too long. Just enough for the pork belly to sweat and release some grease
2	1 1/4 pound 1/2 large 6 cloves 4 cups	Collard Greens White Onion, Diced Garlic, Diced Ham Broth	Add in the broth, onion, garlic and finish with the collard greens. Press the greens down good so they’re fully in the pot and don’t worry if they are too close to the lid – they cook down significantly. Do not stir them up with the broth Secure the lid, hit “Keep Warm/Cancel” and select “Manual” or “Pressure Cook” High Pressure for 60 minutes. Perform a quick release when done (Note: they may smell a little pungent when quick releasing. That means you’ve made ’em right!) Add in the kosher salt and stir. Let cool for 10 minutes, plate and top with pepper sauce if desired

Black-Eyed Peas

3	1 pound 3 cups 3 cups 1/2 large 1/2 pound	Dried Black-Eyed Peas Chicken Broth Ham Broth White Onion, Diced Pork Belly, Diced	Add the broth, pork belly, onion and black-eyed peas to the Instant Pot. Stir well. Add in a clean penny for good luck Secure the lid and select “Manual” or “Pressure Cook” High Pressure for 30 minutes. Allow a 30 minute natural release when done and follow with a quick release Stir everything, let cool for 10 minutes (it will thicken up when really cooled down), plate and top with some Chow Chow and a little mayonnaise if desired and mix together well Enjoy and whoever gets the penny in their bowl should prosper extra well this year!
